

DELCHESTER SERRA CLUB

October 2016

PADRE SERRA SAYS:

Most of us like mysteries, especially those we can solve using clues, facts and reason. One of the greatest mysteries of our lives is, "Who will I become?"

Our Christian teaching tells us that we receive a personal call from God to love and serve His people. But how? What are the clues?

What do other people and events tell us about whether or not our options include a vowed life as a brother or sister or ordination to the diaconate or priesthood?

Take a look at the "facts" outside you, the needs beyond the people and world you know. How can you help those in need, to bring about peace and justice where there is prejudice and violence?

Where do you enter this scenario? What do you sense in your heart and head? Are you a leader or a follower? Do you work well with people? How are you with God?

With these clues and facts about today's world and yourself, how do you answer the question of who you will become? How do you decide how you will work out a life response to God?
